Leading to the rise of the feudalistic Sword Worlds the last colonies of the now old Federation. These worlds fall back into patriarchal rule with Dukes and Kings. Violence with knife and machine pistol becoming the normal rhythm of life. A life filled with dynastic struggles and revenge. Lucas Trask, Anna Harkaman and the crew of the starship Nemesis are rushing toward a destiny of vengeance. What will they find on Tanith?
- 3) Stars of Vengeance Part 2: Previously on Stars of Vengeance
The Tanith Adventure was an expedition to raid worlds for loot. To bring back to the Sword World Gram the riches of interstellar planets. At the same time Lord Lucas Trask was going to marry his bride Elaine Karvell. A marriage of love that would unite two feudal houses. A madman by the name of Andray Dunnan decided that Elaine had spurned him so he machine gunned the Trask wedding. Leaving Elaine Karvell dead and a wounded Trask to seek revenge. Dunnan steals the Tanith Adventure ship the Enterprise to escape the wrath of Trask. Now with a purchased Star Ship named Nemesis, Trask and Space Viking Captain Anna Harkamann begin to search the stars to find Dunnan and vengeance.
- 4) Stars of Vengeance Part 3: Previously on Stars of Vengeance
After Andray Dunnan killed his wife, Lucas Trask, decided to take the path of vengeance. Hiring the combat tested Captain Anna Harkamann and her crew he purchased the Star Ship Nemesis to search the cosmos for Dunnan. Upon arriving at the planet Tanith, Trask found two grubby minor planet raiders who were picking the bones of the decivilized human population. Deciding that interstellar space is too big to chase Dunnan, Trask and Harkamann turn Tanith into a raiding base. Harkamann decides to raid three worlds. Bringing along the Space Scourge with Valcanin and Spasso Lucas Trask experiences his first Viking raid. And learns that there is no honor in the blood and death of those people who can't fight back. Now the story continues with the second raid of the three planets.

04/02/19; repeats 4/16/19

1) Stars of Vengeance Part 4: Previously on Stars of Vengeance

After the first raid of a mostly decivilized planetary society on Khepera the next two were very different. Eglonsby was a society that had technology below the level of nuclear power. But was no pushover. So Harkamann used political trickery to steal the loot. Beowolf with nuclear power but no hyperdrive was a raid worthy of the Nemesis steel. Successful but damaged this was the raid that returned Vulkanin back to being a true space viking. The chicken thief Spassowas shipped to the planet Gram where his weasely talents would be appreciated. After three planetary raids where a great amount of loot is gathered Tanith starts being more than a raiding base, but a growing civilization for the all of the inhabitants. All that Trask wonders now -- where is Dunnan.

2) Stars of Vengeance Part 5: Lucas Trask's wife was gunned down by the Mad Man Andray Dunnan. While seeking vengeance he decides to rebuild the fallen colony of Tanith. Back on the Sword World, Gram, civil war is rising. Some want Trask to go back and become King of Gram. Trask refuses as he's quite satisfied building a home on Tanith. News about Dunnan takes a strange turn as it seems that he is making war on the allies of the civilized planet of Marduk. Deducing Dunnans next move they arrive at the planet Audhumla where they find a battle between Dunnan's ship Enterprise and a Mardukan Navel vessel Victrix. When the Enterprise is destroyed Trask hopes that Dunnan was onboard and that he is dead.

3) Stars of Vengeance Part 6: Previously on Stars of Vengeance

Lucas Trask was on a mission of vengeance because of the death of his wife. Now he believes that the killer, Dunnan, is dead. He also saved the life of the Mardukan Prince Bentrík and his crew. Trask takes Bentrík back to Marduk. While on that planet Trask sees a disturbing event. With the rise of a man in the mold of a Hitler who wants destroy the democracy that the Mardukans maintain. Upon leaving Marduk Trask hopes that the Mardukan civilization is not doomed.

4) Stars of Vengeance Part 7: Previously on Stars of Vengeance

Lucas Trask settled on Tanith because his wife was killed by the mad man Andray Dunnan. Slowly he has built Tanith into a civilized planet. Making treaties and alliances with his civilized Star neighbors he is building up Tanith into a stellar power. The leaders of Tanith are caught up in the politics of Gram, their former home, as it is falling into civil war. Marduk is being destroyed from within by a Hitler like figure. And still the question is, is Andray Dunnan really dead.

1) Stars of Vengeance Part 8: Previously on Stars of Vengeance

It all began when Duke Angus of the Sword World Gram decided to build a star ship to send to the old Federation to sack and loot worlds. At the same time Lucas Trask was marrying his love Elaine Karvall. A distant relative of the Duke, Andray Dunnan, thinking Elaine was in love with him, objected to Trask marrying Elaine. Already thought of as insane, Dunnan went completely mad and shot up the Trask, Karvall wedding, killing Elaine. This triggered the events where the raiding base Tanith becomes civilized. Gram falls into a civil war and then is sacked by a Space Viking fleet. Marduk, a planetary constitutional monarchy, falls. Which is now under the rule of a dictator. So now Lucas Trask is leading a fleet to rescue the civilization of Marduk. With great hope that he will finally get his revenge against Andray Dunnan.
